- (d) Now that I am back at work, I am beginning to feel much better. I am borne lazily from place to place on the top of a bus instead of working like a navy in pursuit of a Small white ball. I Can watch the pink clouds above the setting sun from the office window without regarding them as an invitation to take yet another unnecessary Walk.
- (e) The darkness drops again; but now I know. That twenty centuries of stony sleep, Were vexed to nightmare by a rocking cradle, And What rough beast, its hour come round at last, Slouches towards Bethlehem to be born?
- (f) An aged man is but a paltry thing, A tattered Coat upon a stick, unless. Soul Clap its hands and sing, and louder sing For every tatter in its mortal dress, Nor is these singing school but studying, Mounments of its own magnificence.
